Winter Gift Fair – Many, many thanks to everyone who donated, made, helped & bought at our Winter Fair. We had a lovely morning & trade was very brisk for all the stall holders. We made a wonderful £560.00 profit so far & people are still buying! It was a brilliant team effort so thank you again to all who made it possible.

Church Wall – Thanks to the hard work of Mr Adam Hayward (and the lack of frost) the wall is looking so much better & is all but completed. It will soon be a lovely background again for the spring flowers.

The Sunday Remembrance Service held at All Saints Church, with the laying of wreaths at the War Memorial & at the RAF memorial was very well attended. Many thanks to Susie Culpin, Sue Coxall & all who helped with the wonderful refreshments in the Village Hall afterwards.

Also the Remembrance Service held with the school on Tuesday the 11th of November to mark the 100 year anniversary of World War One was a poignant occasion. The names were read by two of the older children very clearly whilst the crosses were planted. Many thanks to Miss Alix O'Connor & Mrs Dawn Gouldstone's wonderful calligraphy on the crosses. Please take a moment to view the crosses at the War Memorial; pictures on THE CONNECTION Web Site: 3churches.eu

Very many thanks to Pam and Guy Schooling who hosted our farewell party for Graham and Elizabeth. It was a lovely evening with many friends saying their goodbyes with flowers cards and gifts and a heart-felt speech given by David Holmes. We will all miss Graham and Elizabeth immensely and wish them a happy retirement.

The Carol Service at 10:00 on the 21st of December will be an inclusive service of readings, music and carols with mulled wine and mince pies to be served after the service. All most welcome.

As this is my last copy of The Connection before we leave the village, I should like to thank all the deliverers who make it possible. Elizabeth & I have so much enjoyed living in this lovely area. However, we are only going to Sible Hedingham & we hope that we can keep in touch.

The Children's Sunday Club will now be held on the first Sunday of the month, beginning on the 4th January 2015 (from 10am to 11.00am). There will be children's activities followed by a short service with input from the children.

All children are welcome, & also parents & grandparents. Hopefully, the adults can have a coffee & chat; or maybe they would like to help. We shall make it enjoyable for all.

Our kind regards

Pat Smith & Judith Jolley
